Practicum in Teacher Education: 3 Hours
This is a guided opportunity in learning to teach a specific teacher education course, including the supervision of student teaching. For the first two units of the internship, the student works with a faculty member/instructor who is teaching a section of the specific course. The student works with the instructor to develop the syllabus, and to plan individual class sessions, gaining access to the instructor's thinking about the course. The third unit is earned through participation in a seminar focused on practice as a teacher educator.
